Garden Time Magazine is a local, informative and entertaining digital magazine, emailed to over 8,000 subscribers each month. As a complement to our popular weekly TV show, Garden Time, our gardening experts contribute to a 36-plus page magazine, packed with stories and information for the Northwest Garden and Home. The all-digital format provides advertisers with a multitude of options to reach a highly-engaged audience, including clickable links to your website (flash and interactive pdf version only; a print pdf version is also published, but does not contain links.)
